

ScanDesign Foundation Scholarship Obligations

i-SUSTAIN thanks you for your interest in participating in the Sustainable Development delegation to Denmark and Sweden, Sept. 9-14, 2018.

The ScanDesign Foundation is generously providing 12 scholarships to public sector participants as a part of its mission to foster knowledge exchanges and collaboration between Washington state and Denmark. Scholarships cover the program, hotel, program-related transportation, breakfast every day and either lunch or dinner every day. Airfare is reimbursed up to $1,200.

The ScanDesign Foundation requests a few things from scholarship recipients. By accepting the scholarship, you agree to do these things.

If you do not fulfill these obligations, the ScanDesign Foundation has the right to ask for repayment of $1500 of their scholarship funding.

The requirements are as follows:

- To attend pre-trip and post-trip meetings in person with with the ScanDesign Foundation and i- SUSTAIN to communicate about expectations before the trip and to provide feedback on the effectiveness of the delegation after the trip.

The following must occur within a three month period prior to the end of the delegation.

- A presentation of your delegation experience to colleagues and/or peers in which the Scan/ Design Foundation and i-SUSTAIN are invited to attend;
- The completion of a written survey;
- A quote about the delegation that ScanDesign Foundation and i-SUSTAIN can use on their website.

Please complete now: Describe in 1-2 paragraphs how attending the Sustainable Development delegation to Denmark and Sweden will help you with your work. Feel free to add more on the back.

By signing your name below, you agree to the scholarship requirements above and confirm that you have completed and submitted the i-SUSTAIN registration form.
